

IP_317S Globalization and World Politics

Marketa Votoupalova, Ph.D.

Jan Masaryk Center of International Studies, Faculty of International Relations,

VSE Email: marketa.novotna@vse.cz; votoupalova.marketa@gmail.com

Room: NB 264

Contact hours: TBC by e-mail

Aim of this course:

The aim of the course is to introduce the process and concept of globalization and its various aspects or dimensions, such as political, security, economic, societal, and environmental. To approach globalization in an interdisciplinary and critical manner.

Course Content

- General information and organization of the course, Q&A
- Various aspects of globalization – economic, political, cultural, ideological
- Global problems - Factfulness Migration (basic terms)
- Integration policies
- Globalization and nation state, fragile states
- Globalization and non-state actors
- Globalization and security, Copenhagen school
- New wars and new types of conflict, Ted talk – drones
- Globalization and media, freedom of speech, posttruth
- Globalization and environment
- Globalization and developing countries
- Globalization and economy

Grading scale:

100 - 90	A	Excellent
89 - 75	B	Very Good
74 - 60	C	Good
59 and less	F	Failure